

China and Global Economic Order: Perspectives from EU, Germany and Turkey

Joint Webinar (English)

Date: Friday, 13th of November 2020

Time: 14.00-16.00 (GMT+1), 16.00-18.00 (GMT+3)

Organization: Federation of German Industries (BDI) and Turkish Industry and Business Association (TÜSİAD) in cooperation with Sabancı University (SU), FASS, Program of Economics

16.00 Welcoming and Opening Remarks

- Prof. Bahri Yılmaz, Program of Economics, FASS, Sabancı University
- Korhan Kurdođlu, President of TÜSİAD China Network; President of Ata Holding
- Friedolin Strack, Head of Department International Markets, BDI

16.15 Session I. Geopolitical Relations with China: Is China a Systemic Competitor?

Moderation: Friedolin Strack, BDI

- Mehmet Öđütçü, Chairman of The Bosphorus Energy Club, Chairman of London Energy Club, CEO of Global Resources Partnership
- Maaïke Okano-Heijmans, Senior Research Fellow, Clingendael (tbc)
- Jasper Wieck, Representative for East and Southeast Asia and the Pacific, German Federal Foreign Office (tbc)

16.50 Discussion with Participants

17.00 Session II. Economic Relations with China: Is China an Economic Partner?

Moderation: Prof. Bahri Yılmaz, Sabancı University

- Maria Linder, Policy Coordinator - Trade Strategy, DG Trade, EU Commission
- Noyan Rona, Coordinator of TÜSİAD Shanghai Network; Chief Representative of Garanti BBVA Shanghai Representative Office
- Patricia Solaro, Executive Member of the Board, ZVEI - German Electrical and Electronic Manufacturers Association; Chairwomen of BDI Working Group Foreign Trade and Investment Policy (tbc)

17.35 Discussion with Participants

17.50 Closing Remarks

- Prof. Bahri Yılmaz, Program of Economics, FASS, Sabancı University
- Korhan Kurdođlu, President of TÜSİAD China Network; President of Ata Holding
- Friedolin Strack, Head of Department International Markets, BDI

18.00 End of Webinar

In cooperation with