WHAT LEARNERS HAVE TO SAY:

I attended a localized webinar about careers in virtual reality. I loved my experience! The site has job postings, career pages and webinars for all sorts of careers.

Oyintarelado (Tarela) Osuobeni, Johns Hopkins SAIS

I found more useful information [about entering the tech sector] than any of the resources I've seen at my school's career center.

Veer Parikh, Georgetown U. International Student from India

NPS SCORE: 90

Iyad Uakoub previously worked at Stanford University in career services. By day he leads L&D at a tech company in Silicon Valley and is Localized's HR Coach-in-Residence.

Iyad will provide live resume reviews and training sessions in the weeks leading up to the event to help job seekers prepare for the fair.

EMPLOYERS ACROSS SECTORS

Employers will be looking for talent as interns and employees in these sectors and more:
