

Brown Bag Seminars
Fall 2021-2022 Program

October 13 15:00-16:30	Kenneth Bunker Party System Origins in New Democracies: Revisiting Duverger under Electoral System Equilibrium	Universidad Diego Portales
October 27 13:00-14:30	İ. Efe Tokdemir Double Standards: Multi-Country Evidence on When Publics Demand Punishment of Foreign Perpetrators of Torture	Bilkent University
November 10 13:00-14:30	Aylin Aydın Çakır How Does Court-Curbing Affect Judicial Independence? A Synthetic Control Analysis	Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam
November 24 13:00-14:30	T. Murat Yıldırım How Income Predicts Nonresponse in Policy Priority Questions and Why It Matters?	University of Stavanger, Norway
December 8 13:00-14:30	Başak Taraktaş When Does Disinformation Spread? An SIR Approach to Information Diffusion	Boğaziçi University
December 22 TBA	Cantay Çalışkan Quantification of Emotions in American Politics: Can Politicians ‘Keep Calm and Win the Elections’?	University of Rochester

*All seminars will be in-person (FASS2034) and online. Zoom login information will be shared via reminders.